

ADVANCED PRACTICE:

RE-SEARCHING WHAT WORKS

(Available after completing 2 years of consultation with Johnella)

The objective of this process will be to participate with Johnella in constructing a resource that can be used by the professional or general community.

This option will interest practitioners and managers who believe they have identified a practice, idea or process that could be useful to others.

PREREQUISITES:

- Completion of 2 years of consultation with Johnella.
- Access to a permission process for submitting conversational or clinical material to Johnella Bird, as an outside consultant.
- Evidence of a supervision contract in your country of origin.

HOW DO I APPLY?

When you apply for a place, you will need to provide a written response to these questions:

- What have I noticed that has interested me?
- Who will be interested in this discovery?
- How do I hope to present this discovery to those people who might be interested, for example, workshop, children's story, card game or other games, artwork, visual or audio resources, articles for professional journals, workbooks.

WHAT IS REQUIRED OF ME?

- An initial interview between Johnella and you. In this interview we will clarify the scope of the resource.
- Reading as recommended.
- Completion of exercises as recommended.
- Recordings or transcripts to review specific areas of development, if required.
- Eight to Ten hours skype contact.
